

Louise Bodiu

083 4059068

louise.bodiu@ucdconnect.ie
www.linkedin.com/in/louisebodiu/

Self-motivated and ambitious individual with a diligent drive to excel both in team-oriented and independent settings. Adept at leveraging interpersonal skills to interact with diverse groups at various organisational levels. Enjoys problem solving, collaborating and exploring new ideas. Eager to learn, grow and develop new skills.

September 2022 - Present

B.A. Biomedical Sciences, University College Dublin

- Collaborating with peers to solve problems, write-up and peer-review work.
- Performing independent analysis, investigating academic sources, and presenting resulting work in a clear and concise manner.
- Organising and allocating time to modules appropriately to ensure exam preparation and timely delivery of coursework.

December 2023-Present

Sales Assistant, Marks & Spencer

- Collaborating with cross-functional teams to maintain a meticulously organized and efficient store layout, contributing to optimal operational workflow.
- Overseeing the execution of the Click & Collect program, seamlessly integrating digital and physical retail platforms to optimize customer experience.
- Delivering expert advisory services to customers, effectively resolving complex queries and facilitating informed purchasing decisions.

March 2023

UCD Innovation Academy Trainee, Deloitte

- Tackled real-world business problems within a team framework, employing critical analysis and creative problem-solving to devise and propose practical, impactful solutions.
- Actively participated in and contributed to competitive challenges, demonstrating strategic thinking and a results-driven approach to team success.
- Fostered strong professional relationships through effective communication, collaboration, and networking, both internally and with external stakeholders.

November/December 2022 and June-August 2023 (Seasonal)

Sales Assistant, Dunnes Stores

- Collaborating with team members to satisfy customer requirements and guarantee customer satisfaction.
- Managing, organising and handling merchandise and stockroom inventory.

- Assisting customers, contributing to their decision-making regarding products, and providing customer support when necessary.

Other Extra-Curricular Activities

Violinist

- Systematically reviewing, practicing and learning new pieces and compositions.
- Regular rehearsal and actively performing both independently and as an ensemble.

Sunday School Teacher

- Planning, presenting and communicating information in a simplified manner.
- Identifying deficiencies, behavioural trends and shortcomings, and working with students to remedy them.

Other Notable Achievements

- Leaving Certificate: 578 points
- Various Academic Awards, St. Peter's Secondary School Dunboyne
- Practical grade VII and Theory grade IV awarded by The Royal Irish Academy Of Music.

References available upon request